

HALL OF FAME

DOMINIC J AMATO

YEAR INDUCTED: 2000

CATEGORY: MERITORIOUS SERVICE

BROOKFIELD, OHIO

The Pennsylvania State USBC Hall of Fame inducted Dominic Amato for his great contributions to the game of bowling.

Although living in Ohio, Dom has spent his bowling life and career in Mercer County, PA. He served as its President for 18 years and many other capacities in their organization. After serving as a delegate to the PSBA Convention, he was elected as a Western Area Director, serving four years before being elected 4th Vice President, moving up the chairs to become President in 1990-1991. As President, he started the Director's Training sessions held every year at the Fall Board meeting weekend.

He has served as Local Association Host Manager for three Championship tournaments and one Senior Tournament. He was a charter member of the Mercer County Hall of Fame and served as its chairman for many years. He has attended 15 ABC Conventions as a delegate from Mercer County and 2 as a delegate and alternate for the PSBA.