

HALL OF FAME

ROBERT LEARN

YEAR INDUCTED: 2011

CATEGORY: BOWLING ABILITY

ERIE, PENNSYLVANIA

Robert Learn entered the Pennsylvania State USBC Hall of Fame for his outstanding achievements in bowling.

Bob is known around the world as "Mr.300". He has one hundred one 300 games and so many 800 and 700 series he has lost count. His highest average was 244. Bob holds five PBA National titles and twenty-six PBA Regional titles. He was 1st Team All-American in 1996 & 1999. In 1996 he had the highest games on PBA TV Finals. (300 270 280 279) Bob retired from the PBA tour in 2005 with lifetime earnings of $1.4 million.

Bob has done bowling shows for Nickelodeon, the History Channel and Good Morning America. He ran Coaching Clinics/Exhibitions around the world. He has participated in the ABC/USBC Ambassador Program, worked in the USBC Proprietor Relations and Coaching Departments. He is a member of the Erie Sport Hall of fame and the Erie District Bowling Association Hall of Fame.

Bob has been in organized bowling for forty-one years. He has bowled in four PSBA Tournaments and five ABC/USBC Tournaments.