HALL OF FAME

RENEE TALKINGTON

YEAR INDUCTED: 2026

CATEGORY: MERITORIOUS SERVICE

GILBERTSVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA

Renee Talkington enters the Pennsylvania State USBC Hall of Fame for her meritorious service to the game of bowling.

Renee has been involved in organized bowling for 52 years. Renee began her service to the sport in 1997 as the secretary/treasurer for multiple leagues; a position she still holds today. Has served at the local level (2009-present) through the Reading-Pottstown USBC Association Board including the youth committee, house representative, youth processor, lanes certification committee and from 2022-present is the President of the Association.

In 2015 started her service at the State level as a board member of the Pennsylvania State Women's Bowling Association and in 2017-2018 served on the Pennsylvania State Merger Committee. When the merger occurred in 2018, Renee became an inaugural Board member of the PA State USBC where she served on numerous committees and has attended every Annual Meeting. Renee has served as Pennsylvania State USBC Vice President and President (2019-2022).

In 2012, Renee became the proprietor of Jay Lanes and continues to share her passion for bowling not only as an accomplished bowler herself but through becoming a USBC certified bronze coach. Hosts annual Kegel two-day training classes with gold coaches for bowlers of all ages to improve their game. Hosts multiple local, state and 600 club tournaments. Renee has attended the USBC Convention from 2015-present to be able to bring knowledge and best practices back to not only her center but the Association as a whole.

Renee has 6 certified 300 games and 2 certified 800 series. Her highest league average is 217 and a high series of 833.

She has bowled in 24 PA State USBC Women's Championships, 12 PA State USBC Open Championships, 7 PA USBC State Senior Tournaments, 15 PA State USBC Mixed Tournaments. She has also participated in 2 USBC Open Championships, 17 USBC Women's Championships and 2 USBC Senior Tournaments.

Renee was inducted into the Reading-Pottstown USBC Hall of Fame in 2016.

In recognition of these and your many other accomplishments, we are honored to welcome you into the PA State USBC Hall of Fame.
