

STAR OF TOMORROW AWARD RECIPIENT

SEAN MOYER

YEAR AWARDED: 2012

LEBANON, PENNSYLVANIA

It is our pleasure, as the USBC State Youth Board, to recognize this individual for the 2nd Annual Male PA Youth Star of Tomorrow Award. This young man has accomplished a lot through his years in high school and now college life. He currently attends Penn State University and will be Captain of the Berks Campus Bowling team this coming year.

Sean has been involved in the following throughout high school: SADD – Vice President, SHADE, Ecology Club, Junior/Senior Class Play and Musical, lead roles, Varsity Club, Spanish Club, Yearbook, served as COO, CFO and Editor, and several others.

Sean has also participated in high school baseball, golf as well as the high school bowling team. He has also been involved in organizations outside of high school, they include: Church Youth Group, Jonestown American Legion, R Field and Stream as a Veterans volunteer.

Of course, Sean has accomplished a lot on the lanes as a Youth Bowler, his accomplishments are many, too many to mention them all here, but a few highlights are: Captain of the Northern Lebanon Bowling Team, leading them to 3 straight Section 3 Titles in 09-11, 2nd Team Lancaster-Lebanon, PIAA Bowling, 1st Team 2010 and 2011, Lancaster-Lebanon PIAA Bowling, 2009 PIAA Lancaster-Lebanon Snow-Roller All Tournament Boys Team, Top qualifier, 2009 PIAA Lancaster-Lebanon Snow-Roller Team Runner-Up, and several more.

Sean has also found time to give to the community, through a group called Interact, he has given over 100 hours of time to help serve Christmas Dinner and a Day of Caring to those in need.
