

STAR OF TOMORROW AWARD RECIPIENT

TAYLOR LATUCH

YEAR AWARDED: 2019

SOMERSET, PENNSYLVANIA

Taylor resides in Somerset, Pa and is a Senior at Somerset Area High School and carries a 99.37 GPA out of 100. She plans on attending the University of Pittsburg at Johnstown.

She participated in 6 PA State District and State tournaments. She has a high game of 233 and a high 3 game series of 532.

Other sports that Taylor has participated in while in high school was the high school varsity softball team all 4 years and another outside softball team for 2 years.

Taylor's Leadership roles include VP of the French Club for 2 years and President of the French Club for 2 years. She was the captain of her youth bowling team and also did mentoring in the youth bowling league.

Other school activities that Taylor participates in is the History Club, Mu Alpha Theta member (Math Honor Society), French Honor Society and the National Honor Society.

During her high school career Taylor has volunteered 300 hours of her time with community service. During the 4 years of her high school career she was an assistant baseball coach for the Somerset Little League. She was also involved with the Community Bank Christmas Parade float set-ups and pictures w/ Santa. Taylor also volunteers during the Mountain Craft Days.

And to round out her busy schedule Taylor has a part time job working 12 hours a week.